NATIONAL ARTS MONTH 2024

Objective

The main goal of Entablado 2024 is to honor National Arts Month by highlighting the diverse cultural and artistic abilities of the University of Southern Mindanao. The event seeks to unite all the university's guilds—from dance, theater, music, and visual arts—in a collective celebration of creativity and expression. This event aims to enhance appreciation for the arts, encourage student involvement in different artistic expressions, and emphasize the significance of safeguarding and promoting cultural heritage through this gathering.

The occasion also seeks to promote cooperation among guilds, offering them a space to display their distinctive talents, abilities, and creativity. In the end, Entablado acts as a platform for fostering unity and cultural appreciation within the university community while celebrating the theme "Ani ng Sining, Bayang Malikhain"—a tribute to the bounty of imagination and the creative essence of the country.

Background

In honor of National Arts Month 2024, the University Culture and Arts Office (UCAO) at the University of Southern Mindanao hosted Entablado, a significant event that pays homage to diverse art and cultural expressions. The gathering was intended to unite all the university's guilds, covering a broad spectrum of fields including dance, theater, music, and visual arts.

The theme for Entablado 2024 is "Ani ng Sining, Bayang Malikhain," meaning "Harvest of Arts, Creative Nation." This theme showcases the depth of Filipino culture and the lively essence of artistic expression, inspiring the university's students to honor and engage with the arts in every possible way. Entablado goes beyond merely being a performance—it serves as a vibrant platform for students to showcase their artistic talents, share cultural concepts, and come together as a collective creative community.

Expected Output

The Entablado 2024 event seeks to honor the university's artistic abilities through a lively and varied exhibition, featuring dance performances, theater shows, musical acts, and visual art displays, with each guild representing their distinctive style and creativity, enhancing a comprehensive celebration of the arts. The event aims to bolster unity among the guilds by improving collaboration and fostering closer relationships among students from different artistic fields, while encouraging a spirit of teamwork. It will increase awareness and involvement in the arts among the university community, motivating more students to engage in creative activities and think about joining the guilds. By means of performances and exhibits that emphasize the theme "Ani ng Sining, Bayang Malikhain," professors as well as congratulate them on their success in their academic endeavours. Along with this, it is also essential to create a supportive and collaborative environment for UPAG members. And, it encourages the current members to continuously pursue their passion and excel in their studies, as the core reason why they attended the university.

NARRATION OF EXPERIENCE PLANNING

The preparation for Sigay Nu Bulawan began weeks ago before the anticipated date. Planning was initiated by Ma'am Jessa S. Buisan, along with the newly set officers of the UPAG. It was decided for a while to keep it a secret to surprise the graduates. The very first goal of the activity was to choose the concept of the event, which was led to Percy Jackson, as picked by the majority. Each officer had given a task to secure as well as a helping hand from the members of their own guild to be part of the different committees. The event management includes the directing, technicalities, decoration, making of plaques as well as certifications, media and documentation, dissemination of letters, and restoration, thus ensuring collaborative efforts and the overall success of the event. There was also a countdown posting and a video trailer to promote the event which also made everyone excited. It was first planned to conduct the event on June 25, 2024, however, due to the conflict of schedule it was moved on June 30, 2024, to guarantee that everyone is available.

To make the event possible, the office needs a budget for foods, decorations, certificates, plaques, sounds and lights, and other essentials in the event. Each UPAG members, attendees or not, were required to pay two hundred pesos; the office also asked for donations from known individuals. A day before the prior event, the officers and committees made sure that the venue was well decorated and organized, from the stage, tables and chairs arrangement, down to certificates, plaques, and sound systems. After a series of meetings and planning, what was expected to happen in Sigay Nu Bulawan 2024 actualized.

SIGAY NU BULAWAN 2024

OBJECTIVES

The primary goal of this event is to acknowledge the unwavering commitment and dedication of University Performing Arts Guild members, particularly focusing on the graduates. As part of the socio-cultural group in the University of Southern Mindanao, it is the time to highlight and give appreciation to their great contribution to the field of performing arts and how they gave pride to the said institution.

BACKGROUND

The Sigay Nu Bulawan is an annual event at every end of the academic year, which is executed by the University Performing Arts Guild together with the University Culture and Arts; and the graduates are highlighted. It was June 30, 2024, when the latest Sigay Nu Bulawan was carried on at the University Commercial Building by the University Culture and Arts, spearheaded by the UCA director, Ma'am Jessa S. Buisan. The event was attended by the UPAG members, trainers/coaches, and the graduates. It was facilitated by the UPAG officers with the help of the members of each guild (Dibuho, USM Band, USM Koro Bulawan, USM B'dadali Dance Troupe, University Modern Dance Troupe, and Sibol Theatre Arts Guild).

The event was not all about giving certificates to the outstanding performers and graduates but, it also upheld the camaraderie and creativity of each guild. Given that this year's theme was more fantastical – the Percy Jackson motif, it also shows that members are all-rounded when it comes to diverse artistry as they have shown in the event. Messages full of appreciation, encouragement, and reminders were also expounded. This event also strengthens the University Culture and Arts Community.

EXPECTED OUTPUT

Upon the end of this activity, it is expected that the University Performing Arts Guild will be able to achieve its core objective which is to give appreciation and honor the

Before concluding the morning session, the participants are tasked to make their own story and later discuss it.

On the second day, after carefully critiquing their story, the participants prepares for the next phase of session, the Directing. In the morning, the lessons are purely about directing shows. In the afternoon, they emerged in acting workshop to enhance their learnings in exposition of proper emotions, voice, and characterization while in stage play.

The third day of workshops is intended solely in script Interpretation. The Actors prepares for their stage play by ensuring the proper direction of the play and utilizing their time to characterize and interpret the story.

The fourth day is the polishing. The Participants prepares for their final Recital; hence the 4th day is intended to polish the play. The Participants already completed their piece with the help of their trainers. They were able to stitch the story for it to be more presentable and understandable.

RECITAL

At the end of the workshop, participants showcased their newly acquired talents in a recital where they demonstrated the skills they had learned from the different guilds. The workshop ended with lessons instilled to the attendees.

National Arts Month 2025

Theme: Ani ng Sining, Diwa, at Damdamin

Objectives:

- To celebrate and promote the arts through various performances, exhibits, and activities for the USM community during National Arts Month.
- To provide a platform for students from different guilds and organizations to showcase their talents.
- To foster unity and engagement within the USM community by involving students, faculty, and staff in the celebration of culture and creativity.
- To offer opportunities for artistic expression and the appreciation of the various forms of art, including theater, dance, music, and visual arts.

Background:

National Arts Month is an annual event in February that seeks to highlight the richness of the country's artistic heritage and to encourage appreciation of the arts. In line with this, the University of Southern Mindanao (USM), through the University Culture and Arts Office (UCA), organized a series of pocket shows every Friday throughout the month of February. The month-long celebration aimed to bring together students and faculty in a series of performances, interactive activities, and cultural exhibitions.

The events were designed to give each University Performing Arts Guild the opportunity to showcase their unique talents while also involving the greater USM community in artistic activities. These pocket shows were held every Friday throughout the month and culminated in the highly anticipated Entablado event on the final Friday of February.

Expected Output:

- Successful execution of weekly pocket shows showcasing a diverse range of performances.
- Increased student and community participation in the National Arts Month activities.
- Strengthened visibility and appreciation of the University Performing Arts Guild and its various groups.
- A well-rounded celebration of the arts, combining performances, interactive activities, and visual arts exhibitions.
- A memorable culmination of events that promotes the importance of culture and creativity in the academic community.

PASIKLABAN 2024: UPAG Series of Performances

OBJECTIVES

The UPAG series of performances are to showcase the artistic abilities of the University Performing Arts Guild by featuring diverse dance performances that reflect the cultural richness of the university community.

BACKGROUND

Pasiklaban is an annual event at the University of Southern Mindanao that brings together all colleges in a spirited competition, showcasing their unique talents and fostering a sense of camaraderie among students. Each year, this vibrant celebration allows different colleges to engage in various contests and activities, promoting not only friendly rivalry but also teamwork and collaboration across disciplines.

Integral to the success and atmosphere of Pasiklaban is the University Performing Arts Guild (UPAG), which plays a vital role by performing at every significant university event. Their dynamic and culturally rich dance performances enhance the overall experience of Pasiklaban, captivating audiences and setting a festive tone. Through their artistry, UPAG highlights the diverse talents of the university community, reinforcing the celebration of culture and creativity that defines the event.

Together, Pasiklaban and UPAG contribute to a lively university culture, making this annual celebration a highly anticipated occasion for students, faculty, and the broader community. It not only showcases the competitive spirit of the colleges but also emphasizes the importance of artistic expression and cultural appreciation within the university setting.

EXPECTED OUTPUT

The expected output of the Pasiklaban event at the University of Southern Mindanao is a vibrant and engaging celebration that successfully showcases the diverse talents and creativity of students from all colleges. This year's Pasiklaban is anticipated to foster a spirit of friendly competition, with each college demonstrating their unique skills through various contests and activities, thus strengthening inter-college relationships and promoting teamwork.

Additionally, the performances by the University Performing Arts Guild (UPAG) are expected to captivate attendees, adding an artistic flair to the event and highlighting the cultural richness of the university community. These performances will not only entertain but also inspire pride in the diverse backgrounds represented within the student body.

Conclusion

These auditions and screening processes are designed to ensure that each group under the University Performing Arts Guild recruits individuals who are not only talented but also passionate and dedicated to contributing to the group's artistic development. The audition processes for USM Koro Bulawan, Sibol Theater Arts Guild, B'dadali Dance Troupe, and UMDT focus on specific skill sets, allowing the selection committee to make informed decisions regarding the most suitable candidates for each group.

NARRATION OF EXPERIENCE

Planning

The preparation for Alay sa Freshmen started a week prior the event. Planning was initiated by Ma'am Buisan, with the presidents and coaches of each guild. Each guild was given ample time to prepare for their respective performances.

Performance

The Performances started around 3 in the afternoon. The University Modern Dance Troupe, the resident performer of the UPAG performed 3 performances; "Behind Walls", "Chasing Cars", and followed by "Leaves". The University's dancing fairies, The USM B'dadali Dance Troupe showcases their cultural talents through their pieces; Christian (Tinolabong), I.P. (Kadaltahaw, Panaholi, and Kudlong Saluray) and Bangsamoro (Kambdak-badak, Sayap, and Tubao-Malong) community. Meanwhile, the actors and actresses of UPAG presented a one act play entitled Boarding House. The Dibuhos, on the one hand, used their creative hands to mesmerize the students by their displayed portraits and paintings. On the Other hand, the University's marching band, spank the hearts of the freshmen with their powerful pieces. Lastly, the University's voice enchants the students with their mixed choir performance entitled Ngayon and Show Choir performance, Pantropiko. The UPAG ends the day jiving into the community dance; Ipanumpa ko.

70TH USM FOUNDING ANNIVERSARY

The University of Southern Mindanao (USM) greeted the first day of October 2024 with celebration as it marked its 70th Founding Anniversary under the theme "USM: Celebrating 70 years of Victories." The event took place in the university's auditorium with participation from USM Directors, various College Deans, Alumni Award recipients, USM Vice Presidents, Board of Regents members, Kabacan Mayor Evangeline Pascua-Guzman, USM President Francisco Gil Garcia, faculty members, and other distinguished guests. TUCP Deputy Speaker of the House of Representatives, Hon. Raymond Mendoza, served as the Guest of Honor and Speaker at the event. Conversely, the auditorium resounded with the cheers and excitement of the freshmen students who comprised the audience that day.

The University Performing Arts Group (UPAG) ensured that the celebration allowed the audience to experience the talents and abilities of its members. As in any other significant event, Koro Bulawan conducted the singing of the Philippine National Anthem, Bagong Pilipinas Hymn, Dakilang Cotabato Hymn, and Kabacan Hymn. While the Bagong Pilipinas Hymn was sung, the University Modern Dance Troupe (UMDT) participated by showcasing a contemporary dance. The primary program subsequently began, and the esteemed speakers presented their addresses. Also, The USM Band performed Diana at 2am in the morning around Poblacion, Kabacan. At 7am the USM Band led the Float parade.

The Exceptional Alumni were likewise acknowledged and honored for their achievements in their respective areas. To prevent the atmosphere from becoming dull, the B'dadali Dance Troupe performed an intermission piece that amazed the audience. It wasn't long before Koro Bulawan dazzled the stage with their performance of the BINI-Medley Show Choir. This was succeeded by a community dance facilitated by the entire UPAG. The participants urged the crowd to join in and engage, making the festivities more energetic. The mentioned program concluded with a closing speech and the Koro Bulawan performing the USM Hymn.

For 70 years and more, USM has achieved more than simply educating numerous generations of students; it has empowered, motivated, and brought hope where it was lacking," these were some remarks made by Hon. Raymond Mendoza during his address. He also emphasized that USM stayed resolute, serving as a symbol of hope, progress, and opportunity, particularly in agriculture. Individuals were astonished by the way the milestones of USM have been celebrated. The mentioned program concluded with smiles and applause from the attendees, all wishing for a brighter year ahead for their cherished USM.

ENTABLADO: ALAY SA FRESHMEN 2024

OBJECTIVES

To create a warm and inviting atmosphere for incoming freshmen, the University of Southern Mindanao Performing Arts Guild under University Culture and Arts organized a vibrant orientation program that celebrates the rich cultural diversity and artistic talents within its community. The program featured cultural showcases and performances designed to encourage students to share their unique backgrounds and express themselves creatively.

Through these engaging activities, the university aims to foster friendships among students and help them connect with faculty and staff in a welcoming environment. By highlighting the beauty of diverse cultures and artistic expressions, the initiative seeks to inspire a sense of pride and belonging in every freshman. Ultimately, this effort will set the stage for a supportive and enriching university experience that embraces the richness of the community's heritage and creativity.

BACKGROUND

The University of Southern Mindanao is committed to nurturing a vibrant and inclusive campus culture that celebrates the diverse talents and backgrounds of its students. Central to this commitment is the University Performing Arts Guild, which organizes "ENTABLADO," a monthly event dedicated to showcasing the artistic expressions of the university community. As UPAG becomes a part of Welcoming committee, they incorporate Entablado to this year's Alay sa Freshmen.

Entablado serves as a platform for students to present their talents in various forms, including music, dance, theater, and visual arts. This initiative not only provides an opportunity for students to perform but also fosters a sense of community and collaboration among participants. Each event highlights the rich tapestry of cultures represented within the university, encouraging students to share their unique stories and perspectives through their art.

EXPECTED OUTPUT

Upon the end of this activity, the organization will able to present their respective talents and hope to encourage the students to be part of their growing family.

Fourth Friday - February 28: Entablado (Culmination)

The grand culmination of National Arts Month 2025, Entablado, took place on the final Friday of the month, February 28. The day started with Dibuho's Art Exhibit in the morning, showcasing the creative works of students in visual arts. The exhibit gave participants an opportunity to appreciate the talent and craftsmanship of their peers in a different medium. Following the exhibit, performances by the various colleges and guilds were held, showcasing a rich variety of music, dance, and theatrical presentations. The students' performances filled the day with awe and appreciation for the depth and diversity of talent present within the USM community.

The day concluded with a deep sense of fulfillment in the hearts of all participants and attendees. The culmination of National Arts Month left everyone with cherished memories and a renewed appreciation for the arts and creativity. It was an event that truly celebrated the spirit of unity, expression, and the importance of culture in our academic and personal lives.

Conclusion:

National Arts Month 2025 at USM was a resounding success, despite the challenges posed by the weather. The series of pocket shows provided a platform for students to express themselves through art, while the participation of the USM community helped to create a vibrant and engaging atmosphere. The collaboration of the University Culture and Arts Office and the University Performing Arts Guild made this event memorable, fostering a greater sense of pride and appreciation for the arts within the USM community. Through each performance, activity, and exhibit, National Arts Month reminded us of the power of creativity to bring people together and celebrate our diverse cultural expressions.

Vocal Session: Auditionees will perform a vocal piece to assess their vocal range, tone, pitch, and overall vocal ability. Participants may be asked to sing both a prepared song and a piece given during the audition.

Interview: Each auditionee will have an interview with the selection committee. This interview will assess the candidate's dedication, passion for choral music, and suitability for the group dynamics.

Pitching Assessment: Auditionees will be required to demonstrate their ability to match pitch and work with the choral arrangement, ensuring their adaptability and musical ear.

Sibol Theater Arts Guild

Audition Dates: February 12-13, extended to February 17 (upon request)

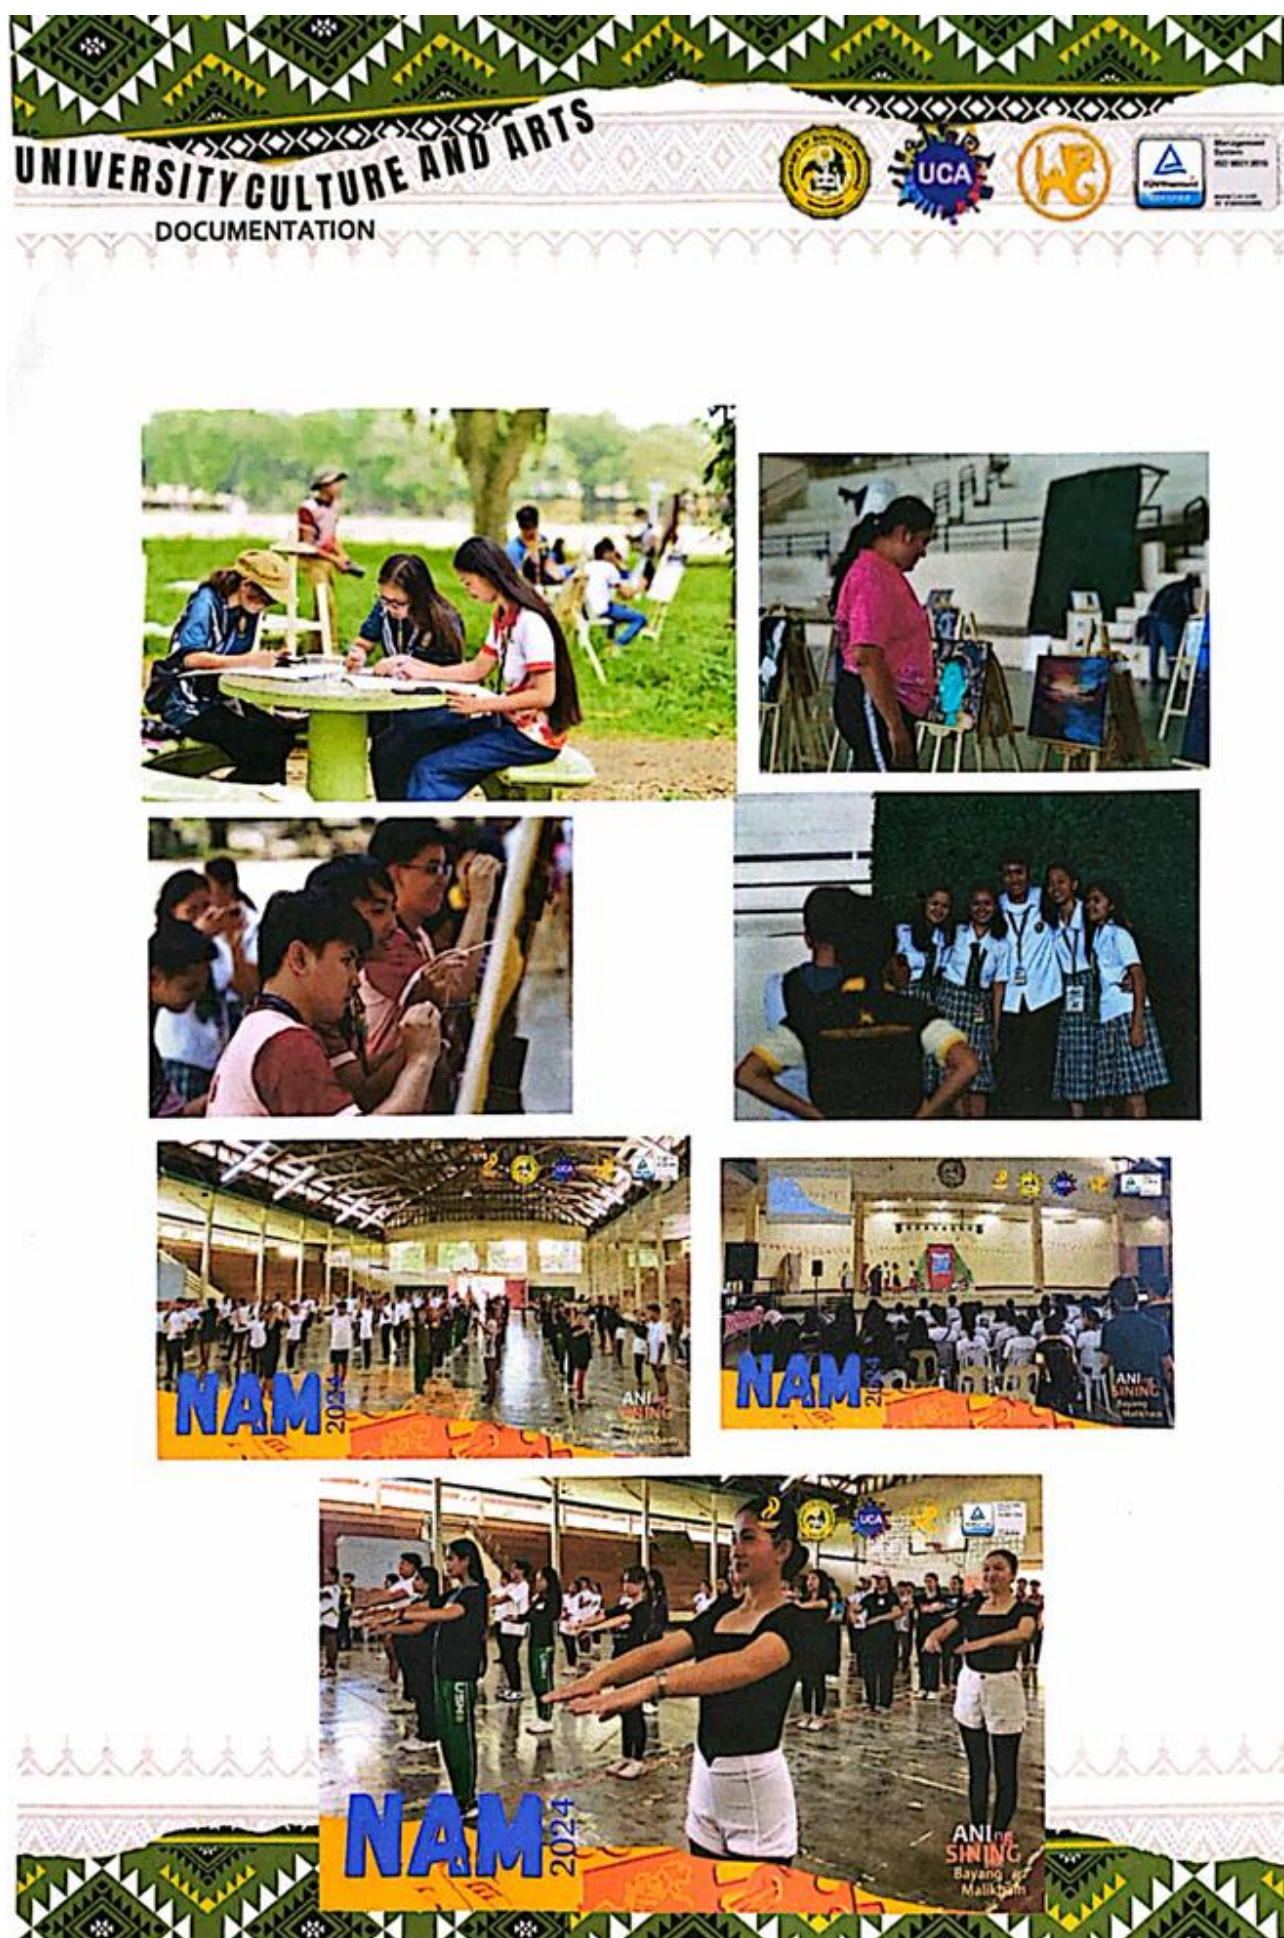

Screening Process:

Interview: Each candidate will undergo an interview to gauge their interest in theater, passion for performance, and motivation to join the group.

Act Your Prepared Piece: Auditionees must perform a monologue or a prepared piece to showcase their acting abilities. This will demonstrate their emotional depth, stage presence, and ability to deliver lines effectively.

Act with Direction: Auditionees will be given a scene or script on the spot and asked to perform it with specific direction. This will assess their ability to take direction, adapt to new material, and work collaboratively with others.

NARRATIVE REPORT (INTERNAL)

The USM B'dadali featured the Kambadak-badak of Bangsamoro community, showcasing their rich traditions and dynamic artistry while the dibuho set up a booth featuring a diverse handcrafted artwork, including paintings, customized tote bags, keychains, and offering services such as face/body painting and photobooth. These artistic creations not only showcased the talent and creativity of the guild members but also provided attendees with unique souvenirs and opportunities for interaction.

The collaboration between technology and art at the 3rd RDE Techno Forum demonstrated USM's commitment to fostering a multi-approach to innovation and education.

TORCH PARADE

The members of the marching band join the opening and torch parade of the Pasiklaban 2024 in the Celebration of the 70th Founding Anniversary of University on September 25, 2024 and held at Poblacion, Kabacan Cotabato. The USM Band serves as the leading march as they showcase their skills in musical ensemble and marching.

CIVIL SERVICE

On September 26, 2024, the University of Southern Mindanao celebrated its annual Civil Service event, featuring an exceptional performance by the USM B'dadali Dance Troupe, who showcased "Tinolabong." The vibrant display of talent captivated the audience, making the event both memorable and meaningful, while highlighting the contributions of civil servants to society.

FARMER'S FIELD DAY

The University of Southern Mindanao (USM) conducted a program called farmers' field day last September 27, 2024, at USM Agricultural Research and Development Center (USMARDC). As part of this program, the USM B'dadali Dance Troupe entertained the guests and participants of the said program of an Indigenous People (IP) dance of the Manobo tribe with the pieces of Tagunggo, Kudlong and Saluray.

UPAG Summer Workshop 2024

OBJECTIVES

To enhance the artistic skills and cultural understanding of participants through a collaborative Summer Workshop conducted by the University Performing Arts Guild at the University of Southern Mindanao Auditorium, featuring specialized training in contemporary, cultural, and folk dance, along with a variety of enriching activities.

BACKGROUND

The University Performing Arts Guild (UPAG) has a long-standing tradition of fostering artistic talent and cultural appreciation within the academic community. Recognizing the importance of skill development and collaboration among different performing arts disciplines, UPAG organized a Summer Workshop at the University of Southern Mindanao Auditorium from July 15 to 19.

This workshop brought together three distinct guilds under UPAG: the USM B'dadali Dance Troupe, the University Modern Dance Troupe (UMDT), and the Sibol Theater Arts Guild. Each guild contributed its unique expertise: UMDT focused on contemporary dance, while the USM B'dadali Dance Troupe showcased Indigenous Peoples (IP) dances and folk dances rooted in Christian traditions. Additionally, the Sibol Theater Arts Guild designed a series of engaging activities aimed at enhancing the overall experience for participants.

By integrating various dance forms and theatrical elements, the workshop aimed not only to improve participants' technical skills but also to deepen their understanding of cultural narratives and expressions within the performing arts. This collaborative approach encourages creativity, teamwork, and a shared appreciation for the rich tapestry of Philippine culture and performing arts.

Narration of Experience:

The National Arts Month 2025 at the University of Southern Mindanao, organized by the University Culture and Arts Office (UCA), was a month-long celebration that brought the USM community together to celebrate the vibrant world of arts and culture. The event featured a series of pocket shows every Friday throughout February, providing a platform for the different University Performing Arts Guilds and student organizations to showcase their creativity.

First Friday - February 7: Opening

The first Friday marked the opening of National Arts Month with a vibrant and lively performance by all the University Performing Arts Guilds. A short skit was presented by the groups, showcasing the collective talent of students involved in the USM performing arts scene. The skit was a perfect way to kick off the month, setting the tone for the following weeks of celebration. The event was filled with energy, enthusiasm, and creativity, and it brought together students from various disciplines to experience the power of live performance.

Second Friday - February 14: Feb-ibig Fair

The second Friday, February 14, coincided with Valentine's Day, and the University Culture and Arts Office creatively organized a Feb-ibig Fair. The fair featured a series of money-generating games and activities organized by each guild. Students and faculty had a chance to participate in fun and interactive games while supporting their respective guilds. The day was full of laughter, teamwork, and friendly competition, creating an enjoyable atmosphere for everyone. The guilds' participation allowed them to raise funds for their future projects while promoting unity through these enjoyable activities.

Third Friday - February 21: The Rainy Day Halt

The third Friday (February 21) was anticipated to feature performances from the University Modern Dance Troupe (UMDT) and Sibol Theater Arts Guild. However, heavy rain interrupted the event, forcing a halt to the planned performances. Despite this setback, the event was not without its charm. The spirit of the USM community remained strong, and students gathered together to share in the collective experience, waiting for the rain to pass. Although the weather disrupted the performances, the anticipation and excitement only fueled the desire to see these talented groups perform in future events.

Audition Proper

The auditions unfolded over two days, commencing at 5:00 p.m. in the USM Auditorium. The Sibol Theater Arts Guild coach interviewed each participant, inviting them to showcase their original pieces. Throughout their performances, team members introduced new scenarios to challenge and engage the auditionees, fostering an interactive atmosphere. This format continued seamlessly on the second day, enhancing the dynamic experience for everyone involved. Meanwhile, the B'dadali made the aspirants perform a specific dance according to the community they want to do. Also, the University Modern dance troupe scout new talents that the goal of the audition is to discover and nurture new talents who will continue UMDT's legacy.

Selection

After a thorough evaluation process, the selection committee, consisting of the coach and senior members, gathered to deliberate on their decisions. Each guild granted their chosen aspirants the opportunity to showcase their talents until the conclusion of the first semester of AY 24-25, solidifying their status as the chosen aspirants.

EXPECTED OUTPUT

The FMG Cup seeks to improve collaboration by reinforcing ties between the university's performing arts groups through a common theme, while offering an engaging cultural and artistic exhibition that showcases the creativity, talent, and cultural heritage of every guild. It aims to enhance awareness and involvement with the university's artistic community, encouraging new members to participate and recognizing Flora M. Garcia's enduring impact on the culture and arts landscape. In the end, the event promotes community development by enhancing connections between students, guild members, and faculty, resulting in a more dynamic, inclusive, and cooperative university atmosphere.

NARRATION OF EXPERIENCE

Strategizing:

The preparations for the FMG Cup commenced three weeks prior to the event, involving a meeting between the UCA Director and the officials. In this brainstorming meeting, numerous concepts were explored to ensure the event is both captivating and unforgettable. After careful thought, the ultimate theme was selected: "Inside Out." This theme showcased the varied and emotive essence of the performing arts, emphasizing the creativity and narratives conveyed through artistic expression.

During the follow-up meeting, various event proposals were shared, such as sports tournaments, a quiz contest, and socio-cultural events. These activities aimed to involve participants in multiple ways, incorporating physical exercise, mental challenges, and cultural festivities, thereby guaranteeing a comprehensive and engaging experience.

Event Specific:

On the day of the occasion, attendees were split into six teams. The teams engaged in the group matches in the morning session, promoting collaboration and enjoyable rivalry. In the afternoon, attention turned to activities such as Pep Talk, the Pageant, and the Presentation of every guild, with each guild featuring prominently based on their specific categories.

During the celebrations, each guild participated in a Boodle Fight for lunch, fostering friendship and a collective cultural experience. Nonetheless, throughout the Pageant, the event experienced three back-to-back power outages. Even with this technical difficulty, the program's progression was not impeded, and the event proceeded seamlessly, showcasing the resilience and flexibility of both the organizers and attendees.

UPAG AUDITIONS: AUGUST 14-15, 2024

OBJECTIVES

To search for talents hidden underneath, covered by self-doubt and fear of the unknown, the University Performing Arts Guild of the University of Southern Mindanao conducts an audition screening in the first month of the semester. The simultaneous audition is happening twice a year, every semester. Each guild is expected to scout for a new member who will bring the unwavering torch of the guild.

BACKGROUND

The UPAG, under the University Culture and Arts Office, aims to uplift one's moral compass through empowering arts and culture. The organization is divided into six guilds: the B'dadali Dance Troupe, the University Modern Dance Troupe, the Dibuhô, the USM Band, the Koro no Bulawan, and the Sibol Theater Arts Guild. Each guild is expected to scout new members who are committed and passionate enough about their craft.

EXPECTED OUTPUT

At the conclusion of this activity, the organization will be able to identify standout individuals and recruit valuable talents to join the team.

NARRATION OF EXPERIENCE

Planning

Preparation for the audition began three weeks prior to the event, led by UCA Director Ma'am Jessa Buisan, alongside the presidents and coaches of each guild. Each guild was allocated sufficient time to organize their materials, from preliminary stages to the necessary screening requirements. The University Performing Arts Guild initiated their outreach by posting a call for participation on their Facebook page, encouraging students to showcase their talents and embrace democratic freedom

DOCUMENTATION

Founding Anniversary: CED goes 63.

In celebration of the 63rd anniversary of the College of Education, the University Performing Arts Guild (UPAG) was privileged to be invited to perform at the event's opening ceremony. The show was directed by the USM B'dadali Dance Troupe and the University Modern Dance Troupe (UMDT), two distinguished ensembles in UPAG, celebrated for their remarkable skill and dedication to highlighting the university's artistic prowess.

The performance showcased a stunning and energetic mix of different dance styles and genres, incorporating both traditional and contemporary Filipino dance forms. These shows were intended to not only enchant the viewers with their artistic style but also to celebrate and showcase the depth of Filipino culture. Central to the performance was the piece 'Filipino Ako,' acting as a symbol of national pride, embodying the essence of unity, identity, and the rich cultural heritage of the Filipino people.

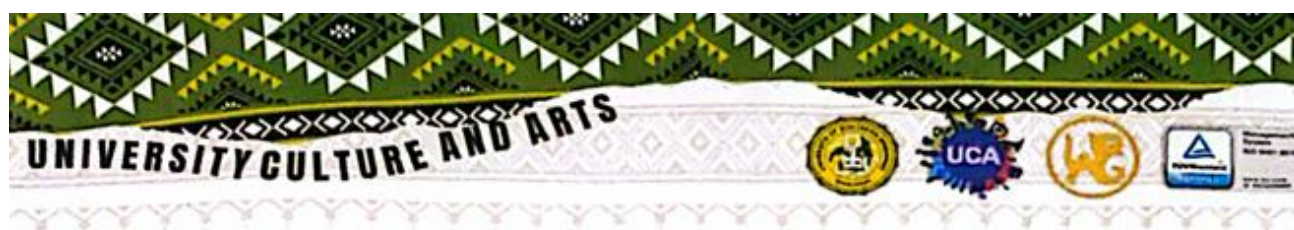

The elegant and strong motions of the dancers captured the spirit of the music, showcasing pride in Filipino identity with every meticulously executed step. The occasion was directed by two principal individuals: Mr. Ezra Ivan Ray Abalos, the UPAG adviser, whose guidance and oversight contributed to the performance's success, and Al-Qycer Mokamadali, a UMDT member, whose proficiency in dance and organization guaranteed the flawless execution of the performance.

Their joint efforts turned the performance into both an artistic and cultural triumph, representing the bond between the university community and the lively traditions of the Filipino people. The performance during the CED's inaugural event not only added to the anniversary festivities but also presented a great chance for the UPAG to demonstrate its dedication to fostering and conserving Filipino culture via the arts. It was an unforgettable event that showcased the university's role in promoting creativity and cultural pride in the wider community.

DOCUMENTATION

In conclusion:

The FMG Cup was created as a friendly match, meaning no team was named as the overall winner. Rather, the occasion honored togetherness and cooperation among the different guilds, with every attendee playing a part in the overall achievement of the festivities. The event wrapped up with a feeling of unity, successfully meeting its objective of nurturing a lively, inclusive, and cooperative atmosphere within the university's artistic community.

DOCUMENTATION

The overall outcome will be a lively atmosphere that encourages participation and interaction among students, faculty, and visitors. Through this event, the university aims to cultivate a sense of belonging and community, while also generating excitement for future activities. Ultimately, Pasiklaban is expected to reinforce the university's commitment to celebrating creativity, culture, and collaboration among its students.

NARRATION OF EXPERIENCE

Performances

PASIKLABAN SOFT OPENING

The University Performing Arts Guild was honored to be invited as the leading act for the opening salvo during the grand kickoff of Pasiklaban 2024, in line with the 70th Founding Anniversary of the University of Southern Mindanao. This prestigious event unfolded with the raising of the banner, symbolizing the commencement of a celebration filled with enthusiasm and vibrant energy.

As the guild gathered at the front of the CBDEM Building, excitement and anticipation filled the air. Dressed in their vibrant costumes, reflecting the spirit of Pasiklaban, the performers were ready to infuse the opening ceremony with their artistic prowess.

As the cue for the opening salvo approached, the University Performing Arts Guild took center stage alongside faculties and students. With synchronized movements and graceful choreography, they brought the audience into a world of rhythm and expression. The lively beats resonated with the festive atmosphere, setting the perfect tone for the start of Pasiklaban 2024.

RDE TECHNO FORUM

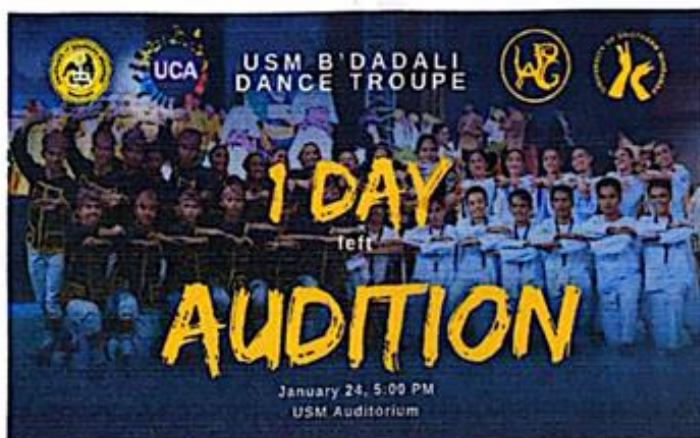

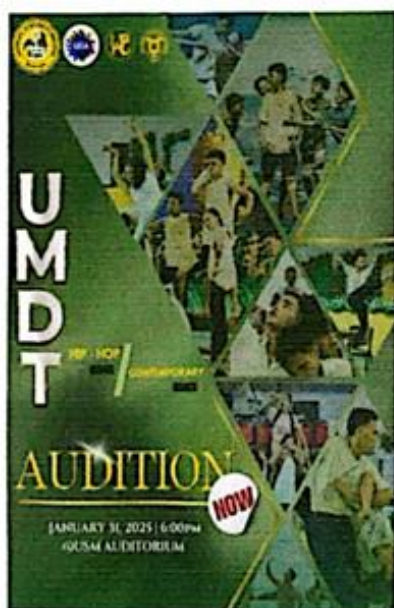

On September 25-30, 2024, The University of Southern Mindanao conducts its 3rd Research Development Extension Techno Forum. In line with this, The Research development Extension Techno Forum stands as a dynamic convergence of innovators, researchers, and industry professionals dedicated to exploring the frontiers of technology and development. Adding to the celebration, the USM B'DADALI Dance Troupe and the Dibuhon delivered a vibrant cultural performance, and build a stall for their products and arts.

UNIVERSITY CULTURE AND ARTS

the event aims to enhance the appreciation for Filipino culture and creativity, recognizing the nation's rich artistic legacy. In the end, the event aims to create an unforgettable experience for participants and spectators alike, leaving a significant impact regarding the importance of the arts and the value of cultural expression in fostering community.

Narration of Experiences

Creativity and enthusiasm sparked among USMians for the 2024 Philippine Folk and Contemporary Dance Workshop during this year's National Arts Month.

Guided by the USM B'dadali dance group for Philippine Folk Dance and the University Modern Dance Troupe for contemporary dance, the workshop culminated in an engaging mix of skill and ingenuity, providing participants with valuable insights as they discovered their abilities.

With the direction of UCA artistic director Ma'am Jessa Buisan, along with Ma'am Alaizah Macapasir and Sir Muhammad Rajiv Buisan, who imparted their significant knowledge in their individual dance styles, participants explored the movements more profoundly. Students were chosen to take part in this year's Entablado, set for March 07 at the USM Auditorium. Embracing the theme of this year's National Arts Month, "Ani ng Sining Bayang Malikhain," participants genuinely expressed their creativity and love for the arts.

Art Jam 2024: Where brushes collide with imagination and colors share tales.

In celebration of this year's National Arts Month, the Dibùho Visual Arts Guild, led by UCA artistic director Ma'am Jessa Buisan and coach Sir Ariel Sadulang, organized an Art Jam session. They offered a space for participants to express their creativity and delve into the depths of their imagination. It was an energetic event where brushes moved across canvases, colors merged together, and art was brought to life through expression.

PROGRAM PROPER

Wearing their creative and fabulous outfits that matches the concept, UPAG members and graduates made their grand entrance to the venue with their captivating looks and smiles feeling like in a runway. It was also the moment where they were judged for special awards such as Demigoddess of the Night, Demigod of the Night, Best Outfit, etc. Attendance was prepared downstairs, and it was required. Going upstairs, a photo booth was also set for pictorials.

The event was supposed to start the program at 5:00 PM, but due to heavy rainfall and all attendees were not yet in the venue, it was moved and exactly started at 6:00 PM. Program started with the doxology and singing of the Philippine National Anthem which was led by the USM Koro Bulawan, and it was followed by opening remarks. To elevate the atmosphere, the Sibol Theatre and USM Band presented intermission numbers as a filler. Awardings for special and major awards and giving of certificates followed before the tribute, dinner and picture taking of the attendees, and Sigay Nu Bulawan 2024 ended with Ma'am Jessa Buisan's heartfelt closing remarks.

FMG CUP 2024

OBJECTIVES

The primary goal of the FMG Cup is to cultivate togetherness and friendship among the various guilds of the University Performing Arts Guild by offering a chance for engagement, teamwork, and artistic expression. In this yearly event, the participating guilds, such as B'dadali, UMDT, Sibol Theater, Koro Bulawan, Band, and Dibuhó, are motivated to collaborate under a common theme, highlighting their unique skills while fostering teamwork and appreciation of culture. Additionally, the FMG Cup seeks to commemorate the heritage of Flora M. Garcia, the past Director of the University Culture and Arts Office, by persistently promoting and celebrating the arts in the university community.

BACKGROUND

The FMG Cup, known as the Flora M. Garcia Cup, is a yearly celebration that acts as a social gathering for the University Performing Arts Guild. It unites different university guilds, such as B'dadali, UMDT, Sibol Theater, Koro Bulawan, Band, and Dibuhó, to work together and honor the essence of the performing arts. Annually, these guilds are imaginatively combined to create a distinct theme for the occasion.

Named in honor of Flora M. Garcia, the previous Director of the University Culture and Arts Office (UCAO), the FMG Cup celebrates her contributions to fostering cultural events and the arts at the university. The gathering offers an opportunity for students and members of various guilds to connect, display their skills, and cultivate a spirit of community through their common passion for art and performance.

Essentially, the FMG Cup not only honors the innovative essence of the university's performing arts community but also reinforces connections among various cultural groups, establishing a lasting legacy of cooperation and artistic expression.

BALIK TA NOW: MIT-USM Alumni Homecoming

On September 30, 2024, the University of Southern Mindanao (USM) marked its 70th Foundation Anniversary with a spectacular Alumni Homecoming event titled Balik Ta Now: Honoring the Past, Celebrating the Future. Hosted at the USM Auditorium, this memorable event gathered former students of the university to reflect, reunite, and honor the school's vibrant past while anticipating its promising future.

The event featured a range of performances, beginning with the University Modern Dance Troupe, which presented a mesmerizing and sentimental show. Their meticulously planned routines and emotive gestures stirred cherished memories of yesteryears, forging a strong bond between the dancers and the alumni. The sentimental essence of the performance was effortlessly combined with an invigorating ambiance, as the dancers' enthusiasm and accuracy infused a lively spirit into the celebration.

Enhancing the cultural depth of the occasion, the USM B'DADALI Dance Troupe showcased the Pandanggo Sa Bulig, a classic Filipino folk dance, with elegance and assurance. Together with the other guilds of the University Performing Arts Guild, they delighted the alumni, warmly inviting them back to their alma mater with lively and energetic performances.

The event also included musical presentations by the University Performing Arts Group (UPAG), with Koro Bulawan directing the performance of Philippine and regional hymns. Their harmonious orchestra established the mood for the occasion, instilling a feeling of pride and heritage, and assisting in the seamless progression of the program.

The BALIK TA NOW Alumni Homecoming was a fantastic event, promoting a stronger sense of community and ties among MIT and USM alumni. This event not only paid tribute to the past but also embraced the future, reinforcing the ties of the university's heritage worldwide.

USM B'dadali Dance Troupe Showcases Cultural Heritage at NRS 2025

The USM B'dadali Dance Troupe showcased their outstanding performance during the opening ceremony and socialization night of the National Rubber Summit 2025 with the theme: "Rubber: A Sustainable Future Through Technological Innovation tungo sa GOMagaang buhay sa Bagong Pilipinas" spearheaded by the Philippine Rubber Research Institute held last January 22, 2025 at Eva's Hotel in Kidapawan City.

The B'dadali dance troupe performed Kambadak-Badak and Tubao-Malong during the opening ceremony. Kambadak-Badak is a Maguindanaon dance, where the act of putting rice powder or badak on their faces is customary to attain a fair complexion and is usually done every night by ladies belonging to the upper class or in preparation for special occasions like the night before the wedding to add radiance to their faces. Tubao-Malong, on the other hand, showcases the different ways of wearing the tubao, which is a head covering worn by males among the Maguindanaon tribe, and the malong, a traditional "tube skirt" made of hand-woven or machine-made multi-colored cotton cloth, bearing a variety of geometric or okir designs.

In the middle part of the event, the B'dadali Dance Troupe delivered a tri-community performance to the 2017 Official Kalivungan Festival Music, symbolizing unity among the various tribes of Cotabato. This showcase featured an array of traditional dances, including Lapay Bantigue, Salakban, Tinolabong, Sauroy Kudlong, Panoholi, Soht, Thalek, Tutup, Sayap, Tubao-Malong, Pangalay, and Silong, each reflecting the richness of Philippine culture. As the performance neared its end, the dancers invited the audience to the dance floor, engaging them in the experience by teaching the steps and dancing together in celebration.

On the event's socialization night, the B'dadali Dance Troupe entertained the guests with an hour-long performance featuring various cultural suites from the Christian, Indigenous Peoples (IP), and Bangsamoro tribes. The performance began with the Christian dances, including Bulaklak sa Halamanan, Pandanggo sa Bulig (a PASUC-NCAF 2024 piece that placed fifth), and Tinolabong (a MASTS 2024 piece that placed fourth). It then transitioned into the IP dances, highlighting Kadal Tahaw, Sauroy Kudlong, Panoholi, and Dumendingan (a MASTS 2024 gold medal-winning piece). The suite concluded with the Bangsamoro dances, featuring Sayap, Silong sa Ganding, Tutup, Kapag-apir, Asik, and Singkil. The night culminated in a final cultural performance, where guests were invited to join in, learning the traditional dance steps and moving to the rhythm of the music.

With esteemed guests from India, Sri Lanka, and Indonesia present at the event, the USM B'dadali Dance Troupe's performances served as a powerful medium for cultural exchange, fostering appreciation among diverse audiences. Truly, this signifies that beyond providing entertainment, the USM B'dadali Dance Troupe is dedicated to preserving and promoting indigenous and folk dances, ensuring that these cultural traditions remain alive for future generations.

DOCUMENTATION

National Rubber Summit 2025

The Koro Bulawan Quartet delivered a stirring performance of "Lupang Hinirang" and the "Cotabato Hymn" at the National Rubber Summit 2025, held at Eva's Hotel in Kidapawan City on January 22, 2025. Their harmonious rendition not only honored the national and local spirit but also set a tone of unity and pride for the event, celebrating the significance of the rubber industry in the region.

Binibining Aleosan 2025

The University Modern Dance Troupe (UMDT) together with the B'dadali dancers brought the house down with their electrifying performance at the Binibining Aleosan pageant. Their energetic and captivating routine left the audience in awe, showcasing their exceptional talent and skill. With precision and poise, they nailed intricate choreography that blended traditional and contemporary styles, perfectly capturing the essence of the pageant. The dancers' stunning costumes added a pop of color and visual flair to the performance. The crowd was thoroughly entertained, cheering and applauding throughout. It was a truly unforgettable experience, highlighting the power of dance to unite and inspire.

B. Technical Description

1. Rationale

One of the services rendered by the University of Southern Mindanao through the Office of Student Affairs is student development which includes sports development and culture and arts programs.

The ISPEAR or Institute of Sports, Physical education and Recreation designs and promotes activities that shall promote and develop intrinsic ability and sports inclination of the students. Intramurals, school meets, and other sports festivals are some of the university initiatives which are organized to achieve its goal. These activities also serve as venues to discover promising varsities who will represent the university in various higher sports competitions.

On the other hand, the University Culture and Arts Office was established to design and provide activities that will enhance students' talents, abilities and values for appreciation, promotion and conservation of the national culture, and multi-cultural heritage.

These varsities and members of the performing arts guild need rigid training, experiences, and exposures to sharpen their abilities, talents, and skills to become competitive in their own field hence, the proposal of fund support.

2. Objectives:

- a) Design and implement sports and culture and arts programs.
- b) Develop and maintain highly competitive individual player and varsity teams for sports competitions.
- c) Develop performers appreciative of Filipino culture and arts.

3. Schedule/Timeline:

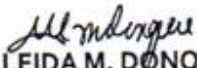

Specific Activities	Date	Person In-charge
Summer Camp	July 2023	ISPEAR Dean Sports Coordinator UCA Coordinator
Tune-up Games/ Friendly Games Competency Training	August, 2023	ISPEAR Dean Sports Coordinator UCA Coordinator
