TERMINAL REPORT

Executive Summary:

The RVG 4 ICT seeks to promote the use of the ICT infrastructure in assisting the barangay local government units (BLGUs) especially in Barangay Malamote, Kabacan, Cotabato in enhancing their governance and transparency in the delivery of basic services including web-based land use planning. It seeks to prepare target barangays towards agricultural and livelihood productivity by improving the capacity of barangay officials in the web-enabled development planning of land resources and appropriate agricultural systems in order to serve the youth, family, and community of the said barangay to become sustainable.

This project was funded by the University of Southern Mindanao amounting to 40,000.00 pesos in order to realize its objectives which are the following: equip barangay officials with web technology and computer skills, pilot latest ICT to connect remote barangays, design and develop a barangay website, survey, and map resources as input to better land-use planning and train barangay officials and staff, and implement Local Area network (LAN) for work convenience and for efficient use of IT equipment.

PROBLEMS MET

The following are the problems met during the conduct of the extension program.

1. Conflict of schedule of some project staff is the reason why they were not able to attend some of the activities.
2. There was only minimal financial support for the extension project that really affected the implementation of it.
3. Limited involvement of students to the training due to the CHED requirements of the off-campus activities led to a hard time for the limited number of faculty who assisted the participants. Due to limited funds, the mobility of the team was also a challenge.

RECOMMENDATIONS

The following are the recommendations for the improvement and sustainability of the project.

1. Adequate time for the conduct of the training-workshop.
2. A comprehensive policy for the student involvement in the extension activity.
3. Additional fund given to the project for the realization of other activities to be conducted such as post evaluation, monitoring and evaluation, and etc.

PROJECT IMPACT / OUTPUTS

The impact and outputs of the project is yet to be determined on the post evaluation and monitoring and evaluation activities.
