USM's Quest for Excellence:

Translating a Vision into a Reality

Lloyd Ariton Von M. Colita, MEAL

...ing the University's mandate ... embedded in the USM's ... which reads: "Quality and relevant ... for its clientele to be globally ..., culture-sensitive, and ... by responsive human resources for ... development". Since its humble ... in 1952 up to the present, ... truly come a long way to provide ... relevant, and globally competitive ... of education through its four-fold functions: instruction, research, extension, and resource generation.

USM's quest for excellence is shaped through hard work, tested through time, and sustained through collective efforts. It is in this light that all the accredited programs of USM as of May 2018 based on three accrediting agencies, to wit: Commission on Higher Education (CHED), Accrediting Agency of Chartered Colleges and Universities in the Philippines, Inc. (AACCUP), and International Organization for Standardization (ISO) were collated to give us a representation of what we call USM's "quest for excellence". By juxtaposing these in one article, we see the current situation and the trend to where we are going.

USM offers graduate level programs under 9 colleges and 2 institutes with a total of 47 degree offerings. Commission on Higher Education through CMO 38 s. 2015 issued on December 23, 2015 designated USM's Agriculture Program as Center of Excellence while Veterinary Medicine and Biology programs as Centers of Development, making USM as the only higher educational institution in Region 12 awarded with COE and COD status.

USM has a total of 42 accredited and candidates for accreditation programs by the Accrediting Agency of Chartered Colleges and Universities in the Philippines, Inc. (AACCUP). Of the graduate program offerings, 2 have Level III status, 4 have Level II, and 1 is a Candidate for accreditation. For the undergraduate programs, 12 are Level III-accredited, 2 are Level II, 8 are Level I, and 5 are Candidates for accreditation.

Making history once more, USM is the first and only state university in Region 12 to have been awarded the ISO 9001:2008 Certification by the ... Organization for Standardization (ISO) on October 11, 2017 for its three ... College of Agriculture, College of ... Medicine, and College of Arts and ... core processes: instruction, ... extension, and support units. ... on May 18, 2018, four more ... College of Education, College of ... Development, Economics and ... College of Human Ecology and ... Sciences, and College of ... and Computing together with the other 9001:2008 accredited colleges and ... processes were given recommendation for ISO 9001:2015 Certification.

From CHED to AACCUP to ISO accreditations, we see USM's quest for excellence never ending. After all, to quote Will Durant: "We are what we repeatedly do. Excellence, then, is not an act but a habit." By putting it all together and then looking back to USM's humble beginnings, we are opening ourselves up to willingness from taking part in this continuous quest for excellence. Now is the time to move further and translate this vision into a reality – the USM way.
