S.1.3. demonstration of skills in applying different strategies in actual work setting.

The program offers Management Accounting Internship (400 hours off-campus) where students are immersed in host training establishment (HTEs) or partner industries so that they are placed in real-world workplaces to apply classroom theories through hands-on experience

The program also offers Management Accounting Research where students investigate professional issues, apply research methodologies, and demonstrate critical thinking, data analysis, and practical problem-solving skill