MINUTES OF MEETING

5.1 Faculty Workload
Prof. Bangcaya discussed key faculty workload concerns and emphasized the immediate preparation of the Faculty Time and Location schedules. Faculty members were informed that the official form is available for download and must be accomplished completely to reflect all finalized teaching schedules, room assignments, and consultation hours.

Prof. Jay-R G. Vildac inquired about the submission deadline for the completed Faculty Time and Location forms and where the updated template is located.

Prof. Sandra Angela A. Bangcaya clarified that the soft copy will be sent in the group chat. and requested submission by next week so that department-level schedule consolidation can be finalized.

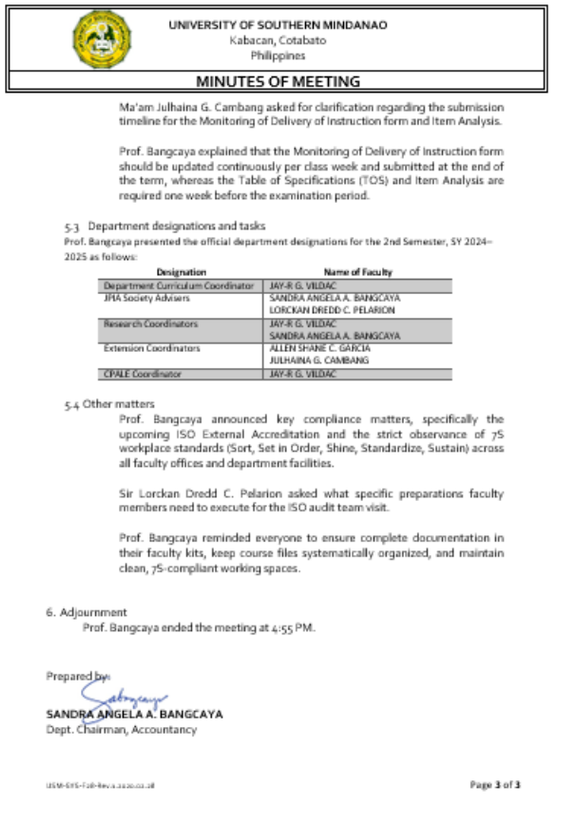

5.2 Contents of faculty kit
Prof. Bangcaya presented the required documents for the 2nd Semester SY 2024–2025 Faculty Kit. The kit must contain:

- Personal Data Sheet (PDS)
- Licenses and Certificates
- Course Syllabus (noting that copies of old revisions are available; course numbers must be verified; Course Outcomes [COs] must be strictly limited to 2 to 4 COs; revision numbers, alignments, and signatories reviewed; and required attachments included: EDU-Fo6 Monitoring of Delivery of Instruction, USM-SYS-F93 Document Origination Revision Form, USM-EDU-F44 Syllabus Content Review Checklist, and USM-SYS-Fo2 Document Distribution Retrieval Sheet)
- Monitoring of Delivery of Instruction (prepared based on the syllabus and updated regularly throughout the semester)
- Table of Specifications (TOS) for Midterm and Final Examinations (due 1 week prior to exam schedule; distribution across Remembering, Understanding, Applying, Analyzing, Evaluating, Creating)
- Item Analysis for Midterm and Final Examinations (due 1 week before/after exam schedule; calculated using formula P = R / T)
- Class Record

Prof. Allen Shane C. Garcia inquired whether existing syllabi with more than 4 Course Outcomes need to be revised immediately for this semester.

Prof. Bangcaya emphasized that all syllabi submitted for this term must strictly follow the 2–4 CO rule to maintain alignment with outcomes-based education standards and syllabus verification checklists.
