S.5.6. Aesthetic and cultural values

The University of Southern Mindanao (USM) stands as a beacon of academic excellence and cultural respect, dedicated to shaping individuals who not only excel in their respective fields but also contribute to the development of a humane and inclusive society. Its mission is grounded in the commitment to provide accessible, quality education that nurtures intellectual growth while celebrating the rich cultural diversity of Southern Mindanao. USM recognizes that its students come from various indigenous groups, ethnicities, and backgrounds, and it strives to create an environment where all voices are heard, respected, and valued. USM's vision extends beyond academic achievement. It envisions a future where students are equipped with the knowledge and skills necessary to drive social change while being deeply rooted in the values of respect for humanity, social justice, and the preservation of cultural heritage. This vision includes fostering a sense of belonging for students from all walks of life, ensuring that each individual, regardless of their ethnic, religious, or cultural identity, has the opportunity to thrive. The university also seeks to engage in community-based initiatives that promote mutual respect, understanding, and collaboration across diverse groups.

In this pursuit, USM embraces its role as a leader in promoting a humane society, one that transcends boundaries and fosters unity in diversity. Through its academic programs, research, and community outreach efforts, USM aims to instill in its students not only academic rigor but also a deep commitment to societal well-being. In doing so, it ensures that future leaders are not only capable of shaping the future but are

Vision

Quality and relevant education for its clientele to be globally competitive, culture-sensitive and morally responsive human resources for sustainable development.

Mission

Help accelerate socio-economic development, promote harmony among diverse communities and improve quality of life through instruction, research, extension and resource generation in Southern Philippines.

Passion, Performance, Pride: JPIA Continues to Shine!

As Pasiklaban 2024 continues to unfold at the University of Southern Mindanao, JPIA-USM is thrilled to push significant paces in the competition. Our beloved participants continue to showcase outstanding skill, determination, and teamwork across various events, reflecting the hard work and dedication that our organization upholds.

Yesterday, our bright debate trio of Esparagosa, Ito, and Karnain once again made an astounding display of sharp-witted arguments relating to International Affairs as the opposition, beating JPES in the second round.

Whimsical, Bouncy, Upbeat motions ensuing from our Fabulous 3rd World Dancesports Duo, Ivan Klint Ogatis and John Owen Punggo. Their lively spins and playful energy bring contagious joy, blending charm and humor into every step.

Today, JPIA's Angelynne Araine Cadungon captivated the audience with a melodic, emotional, and powerful performance of "On My Own" in the Vocal Solo competition.

With each challenge, we continue to push our limits and represent JPIA-USM with pride. We remain focused on giving our best in the days ahead, as we aim to not only compete but also grow and excel in every opportunity presented.

JPIA's Dragon Force Shines Bright at Pasiklaban 2024

On September 30, 2024, the vibrant spirit of USM came alive. The air buzzed with laughter and competition as participants showcased their skills in Larong Pinoy. From the thrill of sack racing and the excitement of catch the dragon's tail to the strength required for tug of war and the agility of kadang-kadang, each game brought its own joy. The JPIA team showcased their exceptional strengths in these events, demonstrating not only skill but also teamwork and determination. The dancing ball added a playful twist, while the creativity of saranggola making painted the skies with colorful kites. Patintero wrapped up the festivities with spirited matches that echoed the camaraderie of the day.

In the intellectual arena, the team from JPIA—Hamdan Karnain, Edrian Esparagosa, and Kristelle Chrismarie Ito—brilliantly fought their way to the semifinals of the debate. Their passionate arguments and strategic insights captivated the audience, showcasing the power of dialogue and critical thinking.

Together, these events highlighted the essence of USM—where tradition meets intellect, and community thrives in the spirit of healthy competition.

How far you'll go? To the crown and beyond!

👑✨ Crowning Glory! ✨👑

Hold on to your tiaras, because we've got a new Mutya ng Cotabato 2024!

Congratulations, Ms. Jovannah Nathalie Abellar, a distinguished member of JPIA-USM, who absolutely slayed the competition and brought home the crown! Your grace, confidence, and sparkle have left us all in awe. The stage was yours, and you ruled it with elegance and poise.

In a moment that will be remembered forever, she gracefully declared,
"I am a representative of those who are underrepresented and will be the embodiment of true beauty"

Her journey is not just a personal triumph, but a victory for all who dare to dream, to stand tall, and to redefine what beauty truly means.

Grace in Every Move, Power in Every Word

To Ms. Colyn Kaye R. Javier, our very own JPIA'n representing the College of Business, Development Economics, and Management—September 29.

She shone like no other at the USM Auditorium! With grace in her walk, confidence in her smile, and brilliance in her answers, she claimed the title and proudly earned the prestigious title of Ms. USM Research 2024.

"The flower that blooms in adversity is the most rare and beautiful of all. – Mulan"

Your journey was nothing short of spectacular, and your JPIA family is beyond proud!

Cheers to a queen who not only dazzles but inspires! 👑
